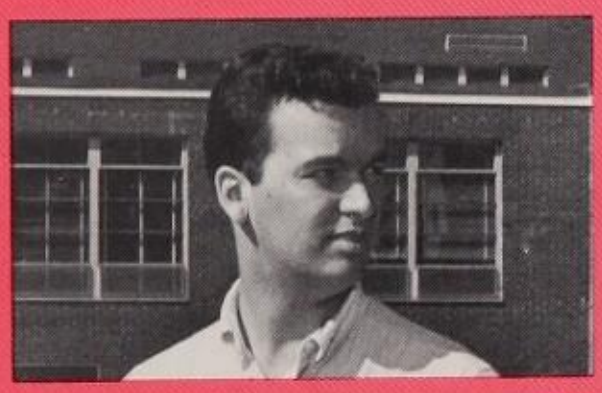
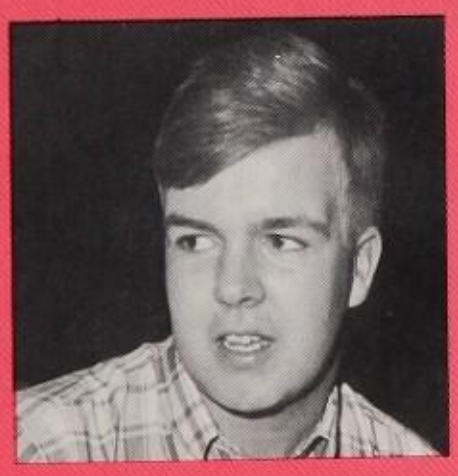
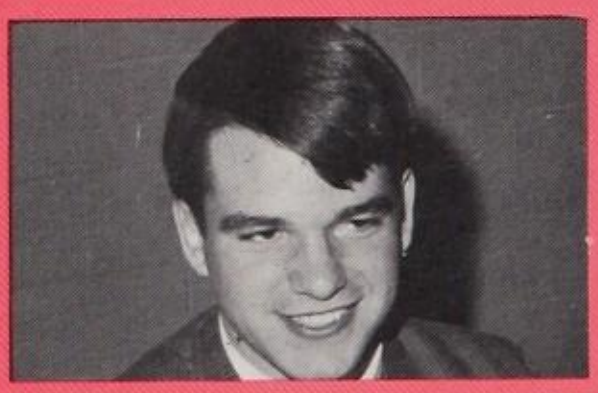
The Importance of One

EP







I am different
Because all the words
That have happened to me
Since the day I was born
Have been added together
And the sum is Me.

— Esther Mayfield

The Importance of ONE Face

. . . a special smile, a concentrated lip,
a quizzical eyebrow, a hungry mouth . . .

The Importance of ONE Day

. . . the solid click of a classroom door, the smell of mimeograph ink, the crackling of a newly-opened book, the smell of pizza, waxed paper and brown lunch bags, clanging locker doors . . .

S

The Importance of ONE Event

. . . tired feet,
a firm clasp,
growing tenseness,
hopeful apprehension,
a different cultural heritage.

One Ever Memorable Day

Let us possess one world; each hath one and is one.

– John Donne
